

hello,
I'm Kim!

I'M SO GLAD YOU DECIDED TO JOIN OUR COMMUNITY.

I've got so much to share with you and I can't wait to get started. But before we do, I have just one small request.

Please do NOT share the link to this file with anyone.

It might not make sense to you, but sharing the link to this page hurts my business and thus my family. If you'd like to share this great Freebie (and I do hope you will) please do so by sharing the page where people can sign up to receive it:

If you are a children's ministry worker, pastor or other ministry worker, you may duplicate this file for direct use in your ministry only. Again, don't share the link, but if you want to print copies for the families in your ministry, you are welcome to do so.

RESURRECTION BASKET

In our home, Easter is all about the cross. In fact, that famous little bunny has actually never even stopped by. It's not that we are bunny hater or anything. I simply found that I couldn't bring myself to focus Easter morning on it. I want that day to be all about the amazing gift that we have in the resurrection of our Savior. Maybe you do as well.

So I came up with a compromise that has been a beautiful tradition in our home. Instead of a traditional basket and talk of a bunny, we have a Resurrection basket. Even though it's not hidden by a cute little bunny, it creates such fun for the children on Easter morning. The basket is filled with things that celebrate God's love for them and Jesus's amazing gift to us through salvation.

This year I figured you might want in on the fun, so we created a few printables to go in the basket. Use one or use them all, it's up to you of course! Just have fun planting God's truth into the hearts of your children. That's what this day (and every day) is really all about!

WHAT'S INCLUDED IN THE RESURRECTION BASKET PRINTABLES:

Jelly Bean Prayer printable

Candy Bar printable

The Stone Was Rolled Away (Rolo candy) printable

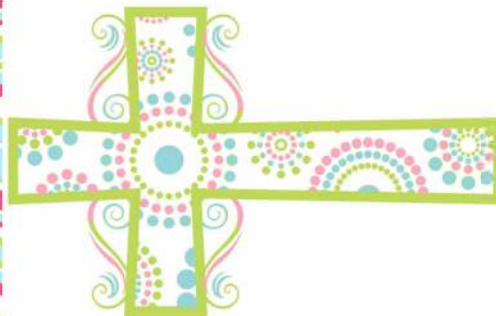

Band-Aid printable

I also included our traditional chocolate crosses that I purchase every year at Target for $1, as well as the Lindt chocolate lambs.

*But he was pierced for our transgressions;
he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him
was the chastisement that brought us peace,
and with his wounds we are healed.*

Isaiah 53:5

*But he was pierced for our transgressions;
he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him
was the chastisement that brought us peace,
and with his wounds we are healed.*

Isaiah 53:5

And he died for all,
that those who live
might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.
